Description: A vio-harp was a type of brown and green harp used to play music. It was Kryys Durango's favorite instrument during the High Republic Era. Sometime between 232 BBY and 230 BBY, Nash Durango, Kryys' daughter, went searching for a vio-harp for her mother's birthday on the planet Bracca. While on Bracca, she found a harp, but it was taken by a scrapper before Nash could get to it. Nash chased after the scrapper's speeder and eventually got it back. However, she accidentally dropped it onto a sleeping mygora, who then took the harp as its own. Unable to get the vio-harp back, Nash decided to give her mom different instruments instead.
