Description: A large Spider-like battle droid which breaches the roof of the Aerial Temple. Due to its powerful deflector shield, their lightsabers and Bee-Toh's blaster are unable to strike the spider droid. Bee-Toh expresses doubt they will win or survive this conflict. However, Kara notices that the droid is having trouble maintaining enough energy to power its deflector shield.
Kara confronts the spider-like droid with her lightsaber. She tricks the droids into blasting the area around her with blaster fire. Kara climbs onto the droid's chassis and takes out its shield generator and engine unit, disabling the droid.
