

Equipment D6 / Merr-Sonn Personal Shield

Merr-Sonn Personal Shield

The Merr-Sonn Personal Shield is meant to provide a high degree of protection against ranged weapons, without the bulk and inconvenience of armor. It consists of a medium sized belt unit that is easily concealed inside of robes and cloaks. Popular with nobility, it projects a particle/energy shield of approximately one meter diameter. It has the drawbacks of being highly noticeable and having a high power draw and the protection works both ways so weapons cannot be fired from inside the shield. When used in conjunction with power generators, it has seen some use with shock troops and raiders.
