Scale: Depending on his anger level, Cody Sunn-Childe creates Monster Brothers from his mind. Normally he will subconsciously create Character Scale Monster-Brothers that will roam around outside the City of Dreams. When aggravated, he will create groups of Character Scale, or singular Speeder or Walker Scale ones which will be drawn to the target of his ire. However when he is angry and raging at a target, he can create Starfighter or even Capital Scale Monster Brothers to attack those that have angered him.

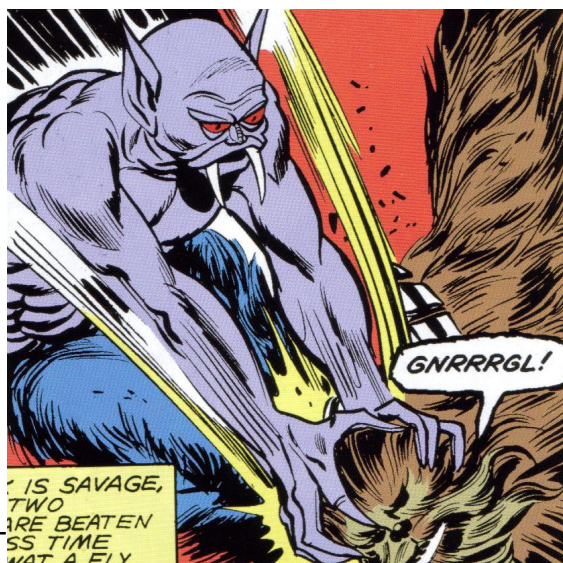

Manifestations: As an element of Cody Sunn-Childe's psyche, Monster-Brothers are created, either consciously or unconsciously, and can be nullified at a thought by him and reabsorbed.

Move: (dependent on size)
Size: (dependent on Cody's rage)

Description: Monster-brother was the term given by Cody Sunn-Childe to the psychic external manifestations of his violent passions.

He let them roam free in the jungles of the Kingdom of Dreams so that he could maintain inner peace. When some of the beasts were provoked into violence by Chewbacca and Lando Calrissian, Sunn-Childe was forced to reabsorb them into himself.

Later, Captain Plikk's attack caused Cody to lose his temper, releasing the monster-brothers as giant demons which attacked the Imperial fleet.
