Special Abilities:

Regeneration: Abyssin have this special ability at 2D. They may spend beginning skill dice to improve this ability as if it were a normal skill. Abyssin roll to regenerate after being wounded using these skill dice instead of their Strength attribute - but turn "days" into "hours." So, an Abyssin who has been wounded rolls after three standard hours instead of three standard days to see if he or she heals. In addition, the character's condition cannot worsen (and mortally wounded characters cannot die by rolling low).

Description: Gor Koresh was a male Abyssin who hunted Mandalorian remnants for their beskar armor during the New Republic's reign. Around 9 ABY, the Abyssin met the Mandalorian bounty hunter Din Djarin at a fighting pit, who was searching for other Mandalorians. Koresh attempted to trick the Mandalorian into a bet which could scam him of his beskar armor, but Djarin refused the offer, and the Abyssin and his assailants held the bounty hunter at gunpoint. Djarin defeated Koresh's allies, and intercepted Koresh outside the fighting pit, interrogating the Abyssin for the information he desired. After Koresh gave in, he was left by the Mandalorian to face some local creatures.

Personality and traits
Gor Koresh was an Abyssin male with green skin, gray hair and a single brown eye. He grew fond of beskar as it rose in value, and hunted Mandalorians to harvest their beskar armor. The Abyssin found it convenient for a Mandalorian, Din Djarin, to come to him. Seeing Grogu, he pointed out that the fighting pit was not a place for the foundling. Koresh also attempted to trick the Mandalorian into betting for information as an attempt to trick the bounty hunter into handing over his beskar armor. When Djarin did not play into the Abyssin's trick, Koresh and his assailants held him at gunpoint, and Koresh bragged to the Mandalorian. After Djarin defeated all of Koresh's allies and apprehended him, the Abyssin gave up information on a possible Mandalorian in an attempt to preserve his life.

Equipment
Gor Koresh wore brown clothing with a gray and sand colored suit and black gloves. He donned black trousers and brown boots. He also wielded a blaster pistol.
